

Privacy Policy

The information obtained from you will only be disclosed with your authorization, as allowed by law, or to conduct our business in administering your policy. To ensure your privacy, safeguards are maintained to prevent unauthorized disclosure. This privacy policy applies to all past, and to all present customers.

This site is owned and operated by Homesteaders Life Company. Homesteaders understands your privacy is important to you. Above is the privacy policy in force at Homesteaders. This privacy policy also applies to all customers of Homesteaders and to all individuals who use this site.

Collection:

Homesteaders collects only the information you give us. When you enter and save your information, Homesteaders will store and securely maintain that information. If you decide to email the collected information to a funeral home or other vendor linked to TheEasierWay.com, that vendor may store and maintain that information as well.

The information you give Homesteaders will be used to provide you with information on services and products, and questions to which you seek answers. This information may also be used by Homesteaders to determine trends and patterns in purchasing habits and make improvements to the site.

Homesteaders will never give this information to a third party without first obtaining your permission.

Cookies:

“Cookie” technology is used on myHomesteaders.com. Homesteaders may use both a temporary “session cookie” or another type of cookie that can be stored on your computer. The temporary “session cookie” is used during a visit to our Web site and is eliminated when you exit your browser.

Access to Information:

It is your responsibility to ensure the correctness of your personal information. Homesteaders will take reasonable steps to update or correct personally identifiable information when we are notified by you that a change is necessary.

You may access any information maintained about you in our files. To obtain this information a written request must be made. Upon receipt of the written request, copies will be sent to you by mail. You may be charged a reasonable fee for all copies provided.

Correction, amendment, or deletion of any information about you must be requested in writing. If a request is made, you will be informed of any action taken by us within 30 business days. If your request is not granted, you will be given an opportunity to file a statement disputing our action. All questions and requests may be made by writing to Homesteaders Life Company, P.O. Box 1756, Des Moines, Iowa, 50306 or accessing our web page at <http://www.homesteaderslife.com>.

Children:

This site is not intended for children under the age of 13. Homesteaders will not knowingly collect information from site visitors in this age group. Homesteaders encourages parents to talk to their children about their use of the Internet and the information they disclose to Web sites.

Linked Web Sites:

This site contains links or references to other Web sites for informational purposes only. As Homesteaders does not control other Web sites, this Privacy Policy cannot and does not apply to those Web sites. It is important that users read the Privacy Policies of each Web site visited outside myHomesteaders.com.
